

MOHEGAN TRIBAL GAMING AUTHORITY ANNOUNCES EXTENSION OF EARLY TENDER DATE IN ITS PRIVATE EXCHANGE OFFERS

Uncasville, Connecticut, February 7, 2012 – The Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority, or the Authority, the owner and operator of Mohegan Sun in Uncasville, Connecticut, and Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, announced today that it has extended the early tender period in its private exchange offers and consent solicitations until 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on February 8, 2012 (unless extended by the Authority) (the “revised early tender date”).

As previously announced, the Authority is offering to exchange any and all of its outstanding notes set forth in the table below (the “old notes”) held by eligible holders for new notes (the “new notes”) in a private exchange offer which includes a solicitation of consents (the “exchange offers”) to certain amendments to the old notes and the indentures governing the old notes. The early tender date was previously scheduled for 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on February 6, 2012 (the “original early tender date”).

As of the original early tender date, old notes had been tendered into the exchange offers in amounts sufficient to satisfy the minimum tender condition (as defined below) with respect to the old second lien notes and the old 2014 notes and old 2015 notes, in the aggregate, but not with respect to the old 2012 notes and old 2013 notes, in the aggregate.

The exchange offers are conditioned upon, among other things, the valid tender (without being withdrawn) of old notes representing at least (i) 50.1% of the outstanding principal amount of the old second lien notes, (ii) 90%, in the aggregate, of the outstanding principal amount of the old 2012 notes and the old 2013 notes, and (iii) 75%, in the aggregate, of the outstanding principal amount of the old 2014 notes and the old 2015 notes (the “minimum tender condition”). The conditions to the exchange offers are set forth in the offering memorandum and consent solicitation statement, dated January 24, 2012, and the related supplement dated February 3, 2012 for the exchange offers and consent solicitations. The conditions to the exchange offers are for the Authority’s benefit and may be asserted or waived by the Authority at any time and from time to time, in the Authority’s sole discretion.

The exchange offers were launched on January 24, 2012, and all other terms of the exchange offers remain unchanged from the terms announced at launch.

Withdrawal rights for old notes and the related consents tendered into the exchange offers expired at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on February 6, 2012, as scheduled, and there will be no withdrawal rights for the remainder of the exchange offers.

Holders of old notes accepted in the exchange offers will also receive a cash payment equal to the accrued and unpaid interest in respect of such old notes from the most recent interest payment date to, but not including, the settlement date of the exchange offers.

The new notes will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) or any other applicable securities laws and, unless so registered, the new notes may not be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred within the United States or to or for the account of any U.S. person, except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements thereof. Accordingly, the new notes are being offered and issued only (i) to “qualified institutional buyers” (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act), (ii) to institutional “accredited investors” (within the meaning of Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3) or (7) of Regulation D under the Securities Act) and (iii) outside the United States to persons other than U.S. persons in reliance upon Regulation S under the Securities Act. The exchange offers are being made only by, and pursuant to, the terms set forth in an offering memorandum and consent solicitation statement, and the information in this press release is qualified by reference to the offering memorandum and consent solicitation statement and the accompanying letter of transmittal and consent.

Concurrently with the exchange offers and the consent solicitations, the Authority is soliciting consents to the proposed amendments from all holders of old notes that are not eligible to participate in the exchange offers and the consent solicitations (the “retail notes”) as of the date the exchange offers and consent solicitations commenced (the “retail consent solicitation”). The early consent date for the retail consent solicitation, which was previously the original early tender date, has been extended to the revised early tender date.

The retail consent solicitation is being made only to those beneficial holders of the retail notes as of the commencement of the retail consent solicitation who are not qualified institutional buyers, institutional “accredited investors” or who are otherwise ineligible to participate in the exchange offers in reliance upon Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, as a non-U.S. person. The retail consent solicitation is made only by, and pursuant to, the terms set forth in a consent solicitation statement, and the information in this press release is qualified by reference to the consent solicitation statement and the accompanying letter of transmittal.
